Highlights from the 2007

Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade

More than 100 NDI dancers, accompanied by Teaching Artists and parent chaperones, marched and danced in the 2007 Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

The children performed for more than 3 million spectators lining the parade route, and the 50 million viewers who watched the parade on NBC television.

Jacques d'Amboise Featured in Film Series of Harvard Professor Howard Gardner

"Art as a mirror on the world" and "the transformative power of dance" were the subjects of a live-audience taped conversation between Jacques d'Amboise and Howard Gardner, professor of cognition and education at the Harvard Graduate School of Education, November 24.

The event was the second in a film series that is the brainchild of Gardner entitled

"Extraordinary Minds at Work." Read an article from the Harvard Crimson here.
