

BRONX Times REPORTER

BRONX TIMES REPORTER SEPTEMBER 11, 2008

Photo courtesy of the National Dance Institute

Bronx dancers join those from throughout the city in performing a dance to the music of John Lennon.

EXPLORING JOHN LENNON'S MUSIC

A number of Bronx dancers recently studied under the direction of actor, singer, dancer Terrence Mann, who conducted a music theater workshop for 100 National Dance Institute advanced dancers, ages 9-15, at the NDI's Irene Diamond Summer Institute in Manhattan this summer. Mann's workshop centered around the John Lennon songs, "Imagine" and "Because," with original choreography inspired by American Sign Language.

Photo courtesy of the National Dance Institute

Actor, singer and dancer Terrence Mann conducts his workshop as Bronx dancers.